01 participate in mental health counseling, provide access to financial information, and pay restitution
02 in the amount of $6,974.57. Defendant commenced supervision on February 14, 2006. The 03 conditions of supervised release were modified to require defendant to reside in a community
04 corrections center for up to 180 days, to include a pre-release component. (Dkt. 46.)

05 In an application dated February 27, 2006 (Dkt 47), U.S. Probation Officer Christopher
06 S. Luscher alleged the following violation of the conditions of probation:

07 1. Failing to reside in and satisfactorily participate in a community sanction center,
08 as of February 23, 2006, in violation of the special condition that she reside in and satisfactorily
09 participate in a community sanction center as a condition of supervision for up to 180 days.

10 Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to her constitutional rights.

11 Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to 12 whether they occurred.

13 I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated her supervised release as alleged,
14 and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be 15 set before Judge Zilly.

16 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained.
